FALLING IN LOVE CONTEMPORARY

Hopeful Romances for Hopeless Romantics.

Unforgettable romances at a great value that make you fall in love again...or for the first time. Available in Contemporary, Historical, Prairie, Amish, and Western.

INSPIRATIONAL THEMES

- True love is worth waiting for.
- Real love looks different from what you might expect and lasts.
- God's surprises are better than all our plans.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Jen Melland lives in Washington State with her amazing husband and family. She's addicted to coffee, chocolate, and all things The Beatles, and married her own real love at 19. He was the first person she ever dated who lasted past the "two-week rule."

Would you let your mama prescreen guys for you to date? Larkspur is just desperate enough to try it.

Larkspur—a twentysomething, freckle-faced Texan—has had enough of dating geeky, weird guys. So when her sociable mama suggests she pre-screen some guys for Lark to date, Lark's desperate enough to say yes. After all, with her three low-level jobs and the classes she's taking, she's not likely to snag The Someone anytime soon. But with her mama's Man Getting Project, she might have a chance at true love.

When Brant Stephens, her old classmate who lives down the street, tells her she resembles a sick cat in the midst of her parade of dates, she chalks it up to him being the most boring, mean, and predictable man on earth. He's got more degrees than she can remember, more annoying personality flaws than she can count, and all the gorgeous, shallow dates he could ever need. So why does he feel led to insult her every chance he gets? And why does she feel a strange flutter when he gazes at her with "that look"?

ABOUT THE AUTHORS

Susan Lowenberg, a librarian, lives with her husband and teenage children in Southern California. She has also published a nonfiction work, C.S. Lewis: A Reference Guide 1972-1988 (New York: G.K. Hall, 1993). Her next novel, The Tournament, will release in 2014.

Forced into marriages in lands far from home,
3 women discover true love.

Alaric's Song

England, 1154. To end the blood feud between the Merclifs and Cardels, King Henry orders handsome, self-reliant Alaric Merclif to marry Helena Cardel. Can she trust Alaric, her enemy? Even more, can any man accept her scars and choose to love her?

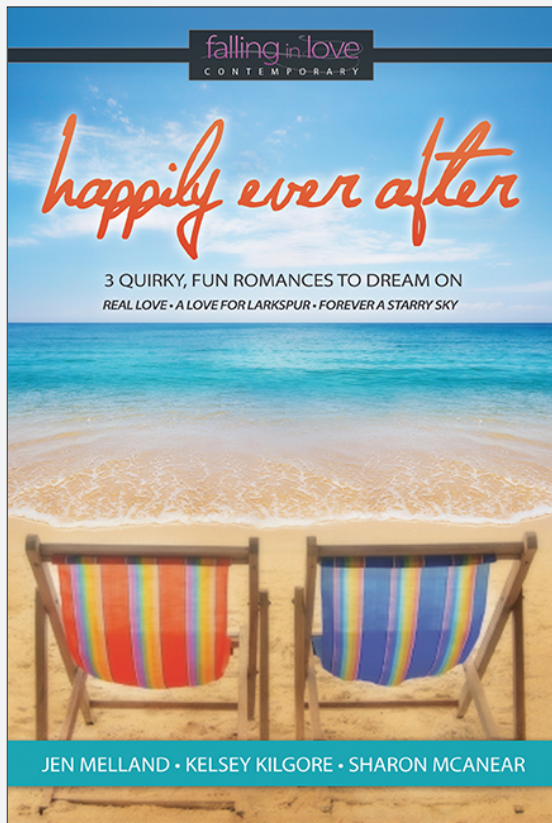

Away from Here

Quebec, 1641. A tragic death and a tangled web of deceit force Catherine Compeaux to marry Stephen Marot against her wishes. Now she's on a ship heading to new France with the man she hates, while her love, Gaston, remains behind.

Chained to Your Heart

London, 1864. Falsely accused of stealing, Katherine Brady is locked in notorious Newgate prison. Her only hope is agreeing to travel to Australia, to start a new life. The catch is, single women have to marry first, and "Big Red"—the prisoner everyone is terrified of—seems her only option.

At the dawn of the earth, a race of beings—masters of the universe—walked the planet. Now a portal opens to their long-lost world.

Legends on earth and other worlds talk of many things about the bene elohim. Since the beginning of time, they have invoked fear and awe. They were despised and revered, teaching humankind about mysteries otherwise unknown. Then, abruptly, they vanished.

To Laura, Jon, and Sampson, three college students, the bene elohim are nothing more than myths—until they discover The Books of El...and are plunged into the world these ancient beings once ruled with absolute power.

Every emotion of our hearts is reflected in the Psalms with words that express our deepest and strongest feelings. Sighing is turned to singing and trouble into triumph. The Psalms provide comfort and joy, leading us to the place where worship flows. When discouraged or downcast, we can take new strength from reading these uplifting poems. They charge our batteries and fill our sails. Their thunder stirs us, and sweet melodies move us into the sacred emotions of a heart on fire. Dark rain clouds of grief turn to bright rainbows of hope as we meditate on David's soul-subduing songs.

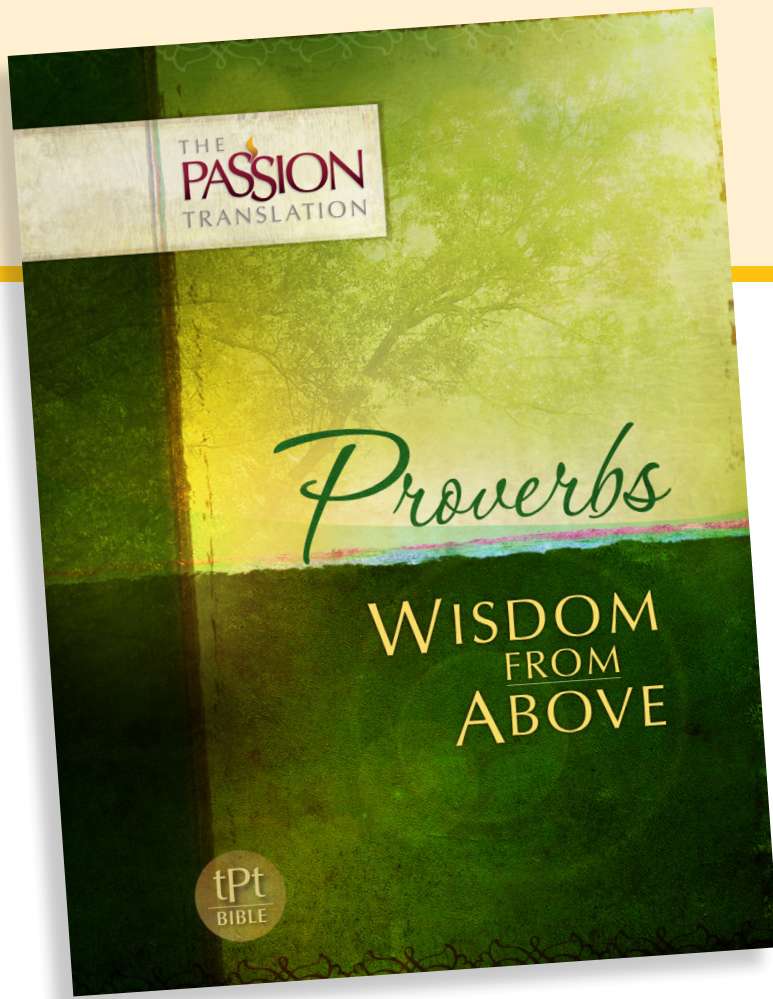

The Psalms are praises placed inside poetry that spill out of a fiery, passionate heart. They free us to become emotional, passionate, sincere worshippers, giving us an expression for faith and worship. The Passion Translation presents these 150 poetic masterpieces in modern English to convey the depth of our longing and fears, joys and celebration, becoming a mirror to the heart of God's people in our quest to experience God's presence.

After a dramatic conversion to Christ, Brian knew that God was calling him to go to the unreached people of the world and present the gospel of God's grace to all who would listen. With his wife Candice and their three children, he spent nearly eight years in the tropical rain forest of the Darien Province of Panama as a church planter, translator, and consultant.

Brian was involved in the Paya-Kuna New Testament translation project. He studied linguistics and Bible translation principles with New Tribes Mission. After their ministry in the jungle, Brian was instrumental in planting a thriving church in New England (U.S.), and now travels full time as a speaker and Bible teacher. He has been happily married to Candice for over forty-two years and is known to boast regularly of his children and grandchildren.

The Word is not just dead letters; it's the Living Expression of God—Jesus Christ. The Word came with skin on as the Perfect Man and the living manifestation of God's glory. The Gospel of John helps us meet this beautiful Christ.

John is also the Gospel of believing. This book reveals that Jesus Christ is the Light of the World, the Savior, the King, the true Anointed One, the Living Bread, and the Loving Shepherd. While Matthew, Mark, and Luke give us the history of Christ, John unveils the mystery of Christ. Through his gospel we experience Jesus as the Lamb of God, the Good Shepherd, the Kind Forgiver, the Tender Healer, the Compassionate Intercessor, and the Great I Am.

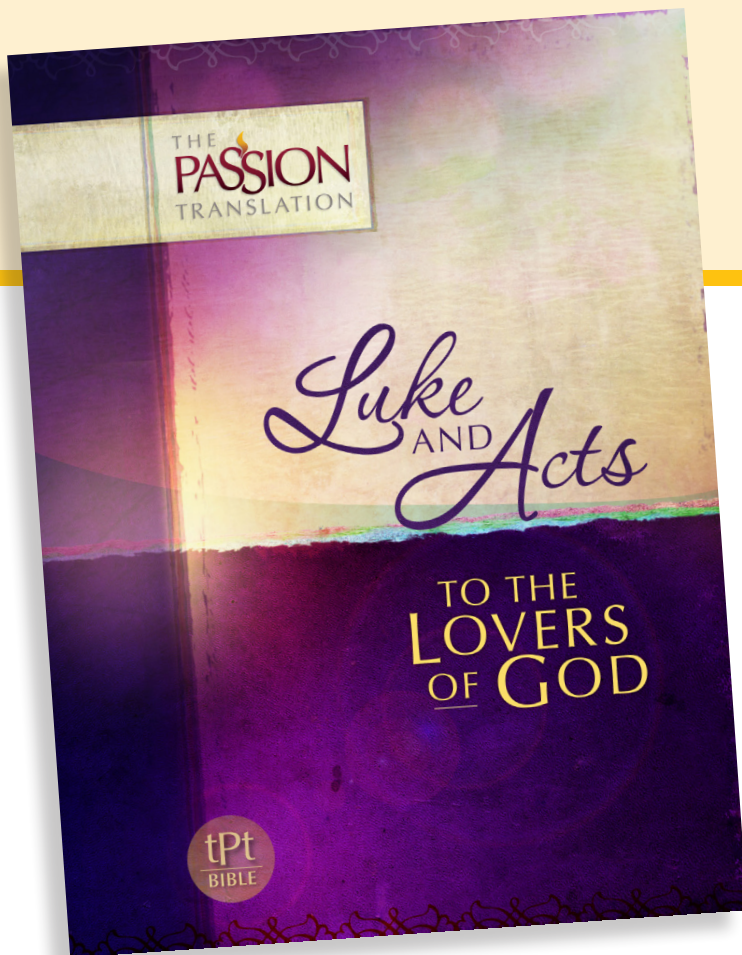

Who can resist this Man when he tugs on hearts to come to him? The Passion Translation of John's gospel will help you encounter the heart of God through Jesus as the loving God in flesh and blood.

The book of Luke is a glorious gospel penned by one of Jesus' early followers. It has been described as the loveliest book ever written giving us a vivid picture of Jesus' life and ministry. Luke was extremely diligent in all he wrote, ensuring that what we read is factual and accurate.

The gospel of Luke is the most compassionate, love-filled account of Jesus' life! Luke provides us with rich details of Jesus' love of children, the forsaken, and ministry to women even though this was controversial in his day. Luke shares Jesus' teachings on prayer, forgiveness, and our obligation to demonstrate mercy and grace when dealing with others. The book of Luke is still read today by the lovers of God because it is the "mercy gospel," and everyone needs mercy.

The Book of Acts, also written by Luke, continues telling the story where the book of Luke leaves off. It provides us with the startling details of the birth of the church and the early years of the expansion of the kingdom of God on earth. It begins in the upper room with 120 disciples and explains the explosive outpouring of the Holy Spirit.

Acts provides us with the story of Paul's three missionary journeys, illustrating the spread of the gospel, addition of new believers, miraculous answers to prayer, and powerful signs and wonders. Removing the supernatural activity of God from the book of Acts is futile.

Through The Passion Translation of this inspired account of church history, your soul will be awakened with transforming power as you encounter God's heart, giving you courage to be a witness for Christ wherever he sends you!

Imagine a letter coming to us from heaven. What would God say? Would we be able to fully understand his message, or would some of it puzzle us?

The Apostle Paul writes this bundle of letters to the first-century churches he planted. He wanted them to know God's heart and to hear his message of truth and love. Some of the most beautiful truths of all the Bible are found in Paul's letters: Ephesians lays an exciting foundation for our lives; Philippians fills our hearts with joy; Colossians brings the colossal revelation of Christ in us, the hope of glory; and Paul's letters to his spiritual son Timothy stir our hearts with greater passion to serve God and love him supremely. Reading through these letters is like having Paul sit in the living room and share his experiences and message of life.

Through The Passion Translation of Paul's letters from heaven you will sense the stirring of the Holy Spirit as he reveals the heart of God for your life in him.

The books of Hebrews and James offer a two-dimensional view of our one faith in Christ. One explores the riches of our believing in Jesus as our Great High Priest, the Author and Perfector of our faith; the other draws us deeply into our walk with Christ by living out our beliefs. The Passion Translation offers these two amazing books together to help you encounter the heart of God through both believing in Jesus and living out his way of life.

Hebrews means "those who crossed over." It is written for every believer today, for we have crossed over from darkness to light, from doubt to faith. The magnificent Jesus is evident on every page, where the light of Christ brings truth out from the shadows for all to see. He is our magnificent High Priest who is greater than any sacrifice offered or prophet of old. You will be stirred to enter into the full rest of God by seeing Christ alone as your perfection before the Father.

The book of James is rich with life-changing revelation: a feast to strengthen us and keep us on course. James gives us practical truths about what it means to be declared righteous by God and offers clear insights on faith and walking out the truth. We might view the book of James as the New Testament version of Proverbs for much of its writings speak of God's heavenly wisdom that can transform us. It enable us to understand the power of faith to produce good works, for as they say: faith works!
