What if you could see yourself in a whole new way? What freedom could you walk in if you could see yourself as God sees you?

The Love Project is a daily journey that will inspire you to see and enjoy God's great affection for you, and in so doing, allow you to be a catalyst to help others transform their own perspective of who they are and how they see themselves.

It's not just the journey of a lifetime; it's the journey for a lifetime. Watch your life, and those around you, turn from ordinary to extraordinary as day after day you live out The Love Project.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

CHRIS DUPRÉ carries within his heart one great desire: that people would know the depths of God's great love for them. A pastor, teacher, author, worship leader, and spiritual father to many, Chris may best be known for his beautiful song, "Dance With Me." Chris and his wife Laura--parents of three lovely girls and four beautiful grandchildren--reside in Franklin, Tennessee.

Ever been a parent? Ever known a parent? Ever had a parent? This book will slay you! If your kids haven't already.

Get ready to discover how only a finely honed sense of humor can help you navigate the most intense, absurd, and (yes) rewarding experience ever invented: parenting. You will realize that despite all of the craziness, at the end of the long, diaper-filled day, parenting rules!

You are not alone in the outrageous, befuddling, occasionally humiliating experience of raising small children into larger children and then (hopefully) self-supporting adults. You will "Amen!" and laugh your way through these pages as comedian Ryan O'Quinn tells of real life scenarios that took place in his actual home with actual children. You will gain deep understanding of the "rules" of parenting such as:

- At some point you will sit on the toilet with a kid on your lap.
- Blocks of time can be measured in Cheerios.
- You will S-P-E-L-L things aloud to other adults when you don't need to.
- If you have multiple kids, they will fight over [insert any noun].
- Pregnancy brain never goes away—for husbands either.

TRANSLATION

Four hundred years of silence. Where was the promised Messiah?

The Jewish people were waiting for the word of the prophets to come true, for they prophesied that he would come. Then the angel Gabriel announced his birth.

Wise men sought him.
Herod wanted to kill him.
John the Baptist presented him to Israel.
God anointed him.
Satan cruelly tempted him.
Then the King came into the Jewish meeting house and announced:

*“I’m here! I’ve come to set you free
and to wash away sins,
And liberate those who love and follow me.”*

It is believed that Matthew was the first apostle to write a gospel, possibly as early as 50 AD. He was a wealthy tax collector who profited greatly from his duty of representing Rome. And then one day, the Man from Galilee stood in front of him and said, “Come follow me.”

Jesus.

He is admired and ridiculed, embraced and rejected. If you want to provoke controversy and emotional discussion, just mention His name.

Jesus was inclusive when He welcomed all the weary and burdened to come to Him and experience the love of His Father. But He was not open-minded when it came to the truth. He stated that He was the truth. And this flies in the face of current politically correct thought.

In Politically Incorrect Jesus, Joe Battaglia exposes the intellectual dishonesty of political correctness and presents Jesus as the model for embracing a counter-cultural faith, which empowers us to be salt and light. Be bold and stand firm in your faith when the culture demands you stand down.

For more than a decade, Brian Urlacher was the face of the Chicago Bears—one of the NFL’s most storied franchises. An eight-time Pro Bowl middle linebacker, Urlacher established himself as one of the league’s preeminent defenders with his athleticism, intelligence and ferocity. He’s widely expected to gain entrance into the Pro Football Hall of Fame when he’s eligible in a few years which is not bad for an athlete from Lovington, New Mexico, where his coaches didn’t even see college potential in him until his junior year of high school.

Middle School Rules of Brian Urlacher will feature the real life childhood stories and exploits of young Brian Urlacher and illustrate how they shaped him into the world-class athlete he became. Inspired by the popularity of the Diary of a Wimpy Kid series, these books will appeal to those same readers but will be laced with stories that will not only entertain but inspire greatness in the next generation by highlighting the importance of being your best, overcoming adversity, and reaching your dreams through discipline and hard work.

The cross of Christ has long been a historic and revered religious icon as well as a divine dividing line within humanity. The Pure Flix powerful film Do You Believe? ushers the timeless question of the meaning of the cross to a deeply personal place: “What does it mean—to me?” Is it only a symbol or truly salvation?

The Do You Believe? Devotional book is a 40-day journey centered around the eternal evidence and powerful proof of God’s great love with the sacrifice offered for humanity associated with only One—His Son, Jesus Christ. In the film, a challenging question is brought before our politically correct culture: “If you were accused of being a Christian, would there be enough evidence to convict you?” Regardless of your own answer to such a question, or the place in life you may find yourself, these 40 days can be an investment into your future—and more importantly, your eternity—as you pursue a deeper level of faith for yourself.

The Do You Believe? Devotional book is a daily walk through God’s Word with inspiring quotes from the film. It offers a respite from the rush of life and the peace and hope made available only through the cross.

A little God time is what all mothers need but can rarely find in the craziness of everyday life.

This daily devotional will encourage mothers of all ages to carve out some time for the refreshment and renewal found in God.

When life demands your attention, find some time in your day to reflect on the God who truly desires to be with you.

The Perfect Hire

Whether “Mom” is your only title or one of several, the day you became a mother you took on a full-time job with crazy hours, non-existent pay, and inconsistent benefits. Some days, it’s the greatest gift in the world to love and serve our families. On others, we find ourselves wondering, Does this job get any easier? Any better?

On those days with more responsibilities than time, more grumbling than gratitude, rest in this: your employer is not that tantrum-throwing toddler or eye-rolling teenager. God chose you specifically for this family; you were the only candidate for the job, and you are perfectly qualified. You work for Him, and He will give you all the support, recognition, and joy you need.

“Whatever you do, work at it with all your heart, as working for the Lord, not for human masters, since you know that you will receive an inheritance from the Lord as a reward. It is the Lord Christ you are serving” (Colossians 3:23-24, NIV).

What part of your “work” as a mother is the most difficult for you? Share your struggles with God. Does it help you to remember you are working for Him at a job He chose just for you?

Life seldom turns out like we imagine. Oh, we try to make it everything we've dreamed it to be. We work oh-so-hard on our marriages. We exercise, eat right and care for our health. We parent with feverish desperation. We read books, go to conferences, take notes and then try a bit harder. But regardless of our efforts, sometimes the unthinkable happens.

If you're at the end of your hope, if you wake up and wonder how in the world you can go on with this unexpected life you've been given, if you're tired of fear and desperate for a drowning of peace, pull up a chair, my friend. You're not alone.

Filled with inspirational quotes, this journal will encourage you to draw on the strength, hope, joy, and peace that is found in God.

Believe it or not, undone is beautiful.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Pulling from her unique life experiences, MICHELE CUSHATT's first book, a memoir titled Undone: A Story of Making Peace With an Unexpected Life, was released in 2015. Her second book will follow closely behind, with a tentative release date in 2017. When she isn't working on her books, Michele writes feature articles, blog posts, stories and devotional meditations for numerous publications including MOPS International, Today's Christian Woman, InCourage, Fullfill Magazine, Hearts-at-Home, Upper Room, David C. Cook's Quiet Hour, Standard Publishing's Devotions, and multiple compilation books including five titles in the Chicken Soup series.

Michele and the love of her life, Troy, live in Colorado with their six children.

Jesus invites us to come to Him to receive, rest, be renewed, and remain in His truth and grace. Re-discover (or discover for the first time) the healing and fulfilling power of God's Word as you rejuvenate your soul with living water and dive into the truth of who God is and who you are in Him.

Your relationship with God and others will be strengthened as you embrace the promises that because His love is perfect, you don't have to be.

Filled with inspirational quotes, this journal will encourage you to position your heart to receive, to turn worry into worship by resting in what is and trusting God with the what-ifs, to break free from patterns of self-doubt by renewing your mind with truth, and to transform your life and relationships as you remain in Christ, living and loving others the way He loves you.
