Why do we find it so difficult to admit that we need God—all the time? He loves to meet us wherever we are and fill us with everything we need for each new day. He encourages us to draw near to him with confidence, boldly making our requests known.

As you reflect on these devotional entries, scriptures, and prayers, be assured of God's unwavering love toward you. Unashamedly ask him for strength, joy, peace, and hope as you spend time in his presence. Ask again. And again. He is listening—every time.

Let us then approach God's throne of grace with confidence, so that we may receive mercy and find grace to help us in our time of need. --Hebrews 4:16 NIV

A FICTION LOVER'S DEVOTIONAL

Love can be found in many treasured relationships: boyfriend-girlfriend, husband-wife, parent-child... with a special friend, teacher, or pet... in the kindness of a stranger. We even have a national holiday to celebrate love.

The greatest love ever known is God's abundant love for us, His children. And He often demonstrates that perfect love through imperfect people.

These stories represent all kinds of love. Woven through each story is the sustaining hand of our loving heavenly Father. On Valentine's Day—and every day—whether your life is chocolates and flowers or loneliness and pain ... let these stories fill your heart with hope, peace, and most important, love.

Did you know that financial matters are mentioned in the Bible more often than prayer, healing, or mercy? Now Certified Financial Planner® Steve Repak reveals what the Bible has to say about spending, saving, and giving money in The 6-Week Money Challenge. His simple, step-by-step program is founded on biblical principles combined with a CFP®'s understanding of modern wealth-management strategies.

An Army veteran before he became a CFP®, Steve inspires and motivates readers to change their financial lives by challenging them to commit to a biblical boot camp. In just 6 weeks, readers will turn their finances around by completing practical and achievable weekly challenges, such as creating a budget, making a plan to get out of debt, building credit, and formulating a savings plan.

Designed for group or individual use, using a format that is familiar to scripture study groups, the book poses questions about biblical quotations to get readers thinking about whether they are spending, saving, and giving their money according to God's Word. Financial information and practical challenges are presented clearly, concisely, and simply, so this book requires no existing financial knowledge.

With so many people living paycheck to paycheck, struggling to build their credit score, and worried they will be in debt the rest of their lives, we need the Bible's words of financial wisdom more than ever before.

Praying with Jesus

Reset My Prayer Life

Intimate Life Ministries

Jesus is praying, but are we praying with Him?

We may pray because Jesus told us to pray, or because He modeled prayer. Maybe we pray when situations are desperate. Prayer is the right thing to do, but there is so much more to this mysterious conversation, this divine opportunity.

Scripture tells us that Jesus lives to make intercession; He lives to pray! If you listen closely, you'll hear what He is praying for: the burdens of your heart, the needs of your life—the Savior is praying for you.

Jesus made a vulnerable request at the darkest hour of His life, asking His friends to pray with Him. But instead of praying, they fell asleep. Prayer is primarily relational. Jesus talks to God on our behalf, but is He praying alone? What would it mean if we joined Jesus in prayer?

Praying with Jesus will RESET your prayer life.

Call Me Vivian A True Love Story Katie Scheller

Experience the transforming power of God's love. Call Me Vivian is a true story about a woman caught in adultery. On the fast track in Corporate America, Scheller became involved in an illicit love affair with her boss that newspapers reported as "sordid." Not everyone's extramarital affair makes front page news or results in a civil lawsuit and criminal charges that land a person in federal prison, but hers did.

From a financially secure future to losing everything except her positive attitude, sense of humor, and faith, Scheller found herself sleeping on the concrete floor in a prison cell she describes as "one step above hell." It was in this place that God did His best work!

This book exposes the truth about Scheller's struggle with sexual sin, the battle for her heart, and the transforming power of God's love. Through Scheller's heartache, pain, and countless years of searching, you will gain a better understanding of God's wonderful gifts of grace and forgiveness.

Call Me Vivian will prove all things are possible with God if you simply have the faith to believe.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

LEVI GIDEON SHEPHERD is a man with a lifetime's worth of struggles in just thirty years. It might be fitting to describe Levi as an old weathered soul, who still holds tight to the hopes and dreams he carried as a child—and he'll fight for them. Levi lives in St. Paul, Minnesota, where he continues to study and write. He also educates people in self-defense, both in Krav Maga and defensive firearm tactics. Levi is still passionately blunt about all things God and politics—often preferring slang, plain white tee-shirts, and unapologetic free speech over societal norms and political correctness.

Some mornings don't feel so good. The circumstances of life may have you feeling overwhelmed, frustrated, discouraged, or even depressed. Isn't it encouraging to know that God's love is not dependent on your situation? Because his love for you is unchanging and his promises are true, you can choose to believe that today will be a good day.

Find the hope, joy, and strength that is abundant in God as you reflect on these devotional entries, scriptures, and prayers. No matter what comes your way today, you can get through it with God at your side.

Give thanks to the LORD, for he is good!
His faithful love endures forever.

Thomas, a hammersmith in the Norwegian mountain village of Bjergland, has grown tired of going through the motions of life. Every day he sees the mountain that stands at the edge of the village—a monument to the dangers and risks that lay outside what is known.

Breaking away from the fears that keep other villagers trapped in their routine, Thomas breaks tradition to discover what truths the mountain may hold for him.

The Messenger is an engaging allegory about awakening to hope and discovering a life full of meaning.

Climb the mountain and become the person you've dreamed you could be. You can't afford the cost of not living from your heart.

Storm clouds gather over a small Michigan town. As thunder shakes the sky, the lights inside St. Thomas Church flicker... and then go out. All is black until a thick bolt of lightning slices the sky, striking the church's large wooden cross leaving it ablaze and splintered in two. When the storm ends the search for answers begins.

James Lindy, the church's blind minister, wonders how his small congregation can repair the cross and keep their faith in the midst of adversity. And he hears the words "only believe." Macey Lewis, the town's brilliant young oncologist, is drawn to Alex, a young boy who's recently been diagnosed with an aggressive leukemia. She puts her hope in modern medicine yet is challenged to "only believe." And Alex's single mom, who has given everything she can to her boy, is pleading with God to know the reason this is happening... to save her son. But she only hears silence and wonders how she can possibly "only believe."

The Reason is a milestone debut novel, opening with a thunderbolt and never letting up as it introduces us to everyday characters who are wrestling with the questions: Where is God when bad things happen? And does God ignore the prayers of the faithful? The answer each character receives will astound readers while offering an unforgettable call to hope, to change, to... only believe.

During a season of life when grandmothers appear to lose so much—our hair, our health, even our pets—God gifts us with a child. We have another opportunity to view life through the eyes of a child, and as a result, each new day overflows with possibilities.

This time around, we are not new moms, perched on the edge of a sometimes frightening and challenging path into the unknown. Now, we are life veterans. We bring wisdom, experience and a clear sense of what is important. A gift of time to a grandchild becomes a gift we give ourselves, and the season of grand parenting also ushers in a new stage of our personal journey with Jesus.

Faith Footprints provides inspirational Scriptures, devotional thoughts, and prayers for grandmothers, along with simple Christian lifestyle activities to do with a grandchild.

Let your faithwalk leave footprints in the sand for your grandchild to follow. Better yet, walk beside your grandchild and grow in faith together.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

BRENNAN S. MCPHERSON has always wanted to tell stories, but it wasn't until his junior year in college that he built up the nerve to try. Three years and several failed attempts later, Cain, his first novel, was born. Brennan is married to his best friend, works full time at a small nonprofit, and plays the drums in his spare time. He makes his home in Sparta, WI.

To succeed at the highest level of any profession requires not just skill, but also confidence and mental toughness. Many men and women have natural skills, but many would also be the first to say that without the affirming love and support from their fathers or a father figure, they would not have made it to the top of their fields.

In That's My Dad! authors Joe Pellegrino and Joe Battaglia look at father models, both positive and negative, that helped to shape the lives of successful men and women in the competitive worlds of media, arts and entertainment, and professional sports. Included are:

- Joe Girardi, Manager, New York Yankees
- Allan Houston, former NBA all-star and Assistant GM, New York Knicks
- Gretchen Carlson, Author and Fox News commentator and host of "The Real Story" with Gretchen Carlson
- Jeff Kemp, former NFL quarterback
- Lee Rouson, former NFL Running Back
- Michael Franzese, former New York mobster with the Colombo crime family, inspirational speaker and author
- Tina Cervasio, New York television sports anchor with Fox 5 and ESPN radio sportscaster and commentator
- Darryl Strawberry, former Major League Baseball All-Star, ordained minister and author
- Frances Hesselbein, President and CEO of The Frances Hesselbein Leadership Institute and former CEO of Girl Scouts of the USA
- David Tyree, former NFL wide receiver with the New York Giants
- Roderick Caesar, senior pastor of Bethel Gospel Tabernacle, Queens, NY
- Chris Broussard, ESPN and ESPN.com basketball analyst, writer and commentator
- Kelly Wright, FOXNews reporter and co-anchor of America's News headquarters
- Rita Cosby, television news anchor and correspondent, WABC radio host, and best-selling author

Whether these role models were hurt or helped by the choices of their fathers, they have chosen to learn from their past and portray exemplary qualities like courage, honor, joy, authenticity, and integrity to make them the role models they are today.

This book demonstrates the power of true fatherhood and the difference it makes in the lives of children. All of us want to, or yearn that we could, stand up and shout, "That's my dad!"

Being thankful doesn't always come easy... even for children. Having an attitude of gratitude can change their outlook on life and bring happiness to their hearts.

This gratitude journal for kids is inspired by the popular "Choose Gratitude" journal for women. Children are encouraged to think about one thing they are thankful for each day, and then write about it or draw a picture of it in the space provided. Watch their faces light up with smiles as they focus their hearts and minds on things that are good.

Whatever is true, whatever is noble, whatever is right, whatever is pure,
whatever is lovely, whatever is admirable—
if anything is excellent or praiseworthy—think about such things.
Philippians 4:8 NIV

You are beautiful in his sight!

In our outward-focused, airbrushed society, it's easy to believe the world's definition of beauty. But what does God say about true beauty? It is found within; it is created in maturity; it dwells with the gentle and humble of heart. While the external beauty may be fading, there is a wealth of beauty inside.

“The LORD does not look at the things people look at. People look at the outward appearance, but the LORD looks at the heart.”
1 Samuel 16:7 NIV

Spend time with God today and express your thoughts in this journal as you glimpse the depth of beauty that he sees within you. He makes all things beautiful in his time. Every situation you face has the potential to create beauty in you. Perseverance, humility, grace, obedience—these are truly beautiful.
