A father's love imparts value into the heart of a child.

Fathers have an incredibly important role. They represent God to younger generations, they model integrity in relationships, and they provide a foundation for wise decision-making and faith. Sometimes fathers might feel like they've got it all together, and sometimes their responsibilities can seem overly burdensome. Fathers need strengthening reminders of their calling every day.

This 365-day devotional gives fresh encouragement to fathers. Time spent each day in God's presence meditating on his powerful Word can empower them to be men of character, strength, and leadership. After all, God the Father has more than enough resources at his disposal for those who seek to represent him in all they do.

The Way of Faith is a profound exploration—and perceptive explanation—for the true and often misunderstood nature of religious faith. Shifting the focus away from our feelings to what God feels, T.W.S. Hunt reminds us that true faithfulness is less about us experiencing God, and more about God experiencing us.

Written with exquisite style and extraordinary insight, this compact collection of forty meditations promises to be both revolutionary and revelatory. For it contemplates the ways in which our relationship with God is best measured, not by how close we feel to God, but how close God feels to us. And it challenges us to turn every aspect of our lives—ranging from hardship and happiness to our occupation and recreation—upward and outward, both in faith and in love.

What is your God-sized assignment?

God has an assignment for you—a God-sized destiny for you to fulfill. How can you know what it is, and what is the process to walk in that calling?

The Joseph Calling presents six unique stages that people pass through to fulfill their destiny. Such was the case for Joseph in the Bible—he was a dreamer with a calling. After being the favored son, his brothers betrayed him, which led to a thirteen-year journey of hardship, humble circumstances, accusations, and pain. But God used Joseph’s adversities to fulfill a larger story—to be a spiritual and physical provider for others. “Josephs” today are men and women, old and young, who are set apart by God for his divine purposes.

Os Hillman will help you:

- embrace God’s activity in your life
- navigate through adversity
- discover your calling
- fulfill God’s purpose for your life

God has a plan for you at every stage of life. He wants you to know his assignment for you—and only you—so you can live an intentional and purpose-filled life.

What do you stand for?
Truth? Jesus? Traditional marriage? Life?

Many Christians say they stand for what the Bible teaches, but when challenged, they can't articulate what that is exactly. - Deal with skepticism, doubt, and unbelief
- Be fearless in the midst of fear
- Know the Bible is true and have confidence in the central truth of Christianity
- Experience freedom of religion
- Practice six habits that lead to spiritual maturity
- Discern between the God of the Bible and other gods
- Live beyond yourself in the power of the Holy Spirit

It's not enough to say you're a Christian. Join Jason Jimenez and Alex McFarland as they share bold truth that will take you from saying what you believe to living what you believe with confidence and passion.

“Every good and perfect gift is from above, coming down from the Father of the heavenly lights, who does not change like shifting shadows.” James 1:17 NIV

Joe and Tahni Cullen’s life spun into supernatural mode when their seven-year-old, nonverbal autistic son, Josiah, who had never been traditionally taught to read or write, suddenly typed his first independent sentence on an iPad: God is a good gift giver.

As told in the book Josiah’s Fire, God unlocked Josiah’s spiritual senses to the deep joys of heaven—renewing their hope, joy, and excitement for God’s Word, power, and presence. Josiah’s gems on their Josiah’s Fire Facebook page delight people from around the world with his wise, thought-provoking insights.

This 21-day devotional unites three inspired voices—Tahni Cullen, Josiah Cullen, and Cheryl Ricker—as they share Josiah’s revelatory quotes, personal stories, Scripture for meditation, and prompts for reflection. You will see that blessings come in unexpected forms, personally prepared for you by the good gift giver himself. When received as gifts, these blessings will increase your gratitude, joy, and hope.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

LEONARD RAVENHILL was born in 1907 in the city of Leeds, in Yorkshire, England. After his conversion to Christ, he was trained for the ministry at Cliff College. It soon became evident that evangelism was his forte, and he engaged it with both vigor and power. Eventually he became one of England’s foremost outdoor evangelists. His meetings in the war years drew traffic jamming crowds in Britain, and great numbers of his converts not only followed the Savior into the Kingdom, but into Christian ministry and the world’s mission fields. In 1939 he married an Irish nurse named Martha. Together they had three sons. Paul and David are ministers, and Philip is a teacher. Leonard went home to be with the Lord in November of 1994.

TRANSLATION

Soft touch matte lam cover with special debossing and spot UV

Paul's two letters to the Thessalonians are deeply personal. Although he was encouraged by their faith, hope, and love, Paul was still mindful of their vulnerability. So he wrote to build their spiritual muscles, helping them live faithfully while awaiting Christ's return. Full of encouragement and exhortation, their prophetic insights will keep you focused on what is truth as we look to Christ alone to be our faithful strength—no matter how difficult the future may appear.

The book of Titus reminds us that right beliefs should impact every area of our lives—relationships, work, community—for right living always accompanies right doctrine. In today's culture, we need this prophetic reminder that the grace that saves us is the same grace that empowers us to live a life of good works!

Finally, Philemon is a letter written with one purpose: to bring reconciliation between two brothers in Christ. We should be grateful to God for gifting us this letter because the dignity of every human being is brought forth powerfully in the story of Philemon and Onesimus—a story of forgiving love.

What treasures are found in the pages of these letters! They will leave you richer in your spiritual life and empower you to persevere until the day Jesus returns in glory.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

BRIAN SIMMONS is known as a passionate lover of God. After a dramatic conversion to Christ, Brian knew that God was calling him to go to the unreached people of the world and present the gospel of God's grace to all who would listen. With his wife Candice and their three children, he spent nearly eight years in the tropical rain forest of the Darien Province of Panama as a church planter, translator, and consultant. Brian was involved in the Paya-Kuna New Testament translation project and studied linguistics and Bible translation principles with New Tribes Mission. Brian is now working to complete a new translation of the Scripture from the ancient Hebrew, Aramaic, and Greek.

Tim Chambers is a fellow artist who creates beautiful paintings, not in spite of—but because of—his weakness. His personal story and amazing works of art show us all how to lay before our great Creator our own limitations, for only in doing so can the Master Artist have his way with his brushstrokes across our lives. Tim's inspiring story will touch your heart!

—Joni Eareckson Tada, Joni and Friends International Disability Center

I know and respect Tim Chambers. I deeply appreciate his artistic gifts and skills, his desire to honor God, and how he has faced significant adversity. I commend Tim as an artist and a person.

Why do some people seem to have more faith?

No matter what status a person may have, no one is perfect and no one totally walks by faith. Doubt, worry, overwhelming feelings, and sin are part of the human condition. All of us need to trust God as our source, security, and assurance.

In Faith: Believing in the God Who Works on Your Behalf, Pastor Yonggi Cho shares his experience of miracles and examples of how to understand and grow in faith. As a young man with only weeks to live, Pastor Cho was healed of a terminal illness, saw the resurrected Jesus, and quickly began telling people who had no hope that God would provide all they needed. Those few listeners grew to hundreds of thousands and became the world's largest church.

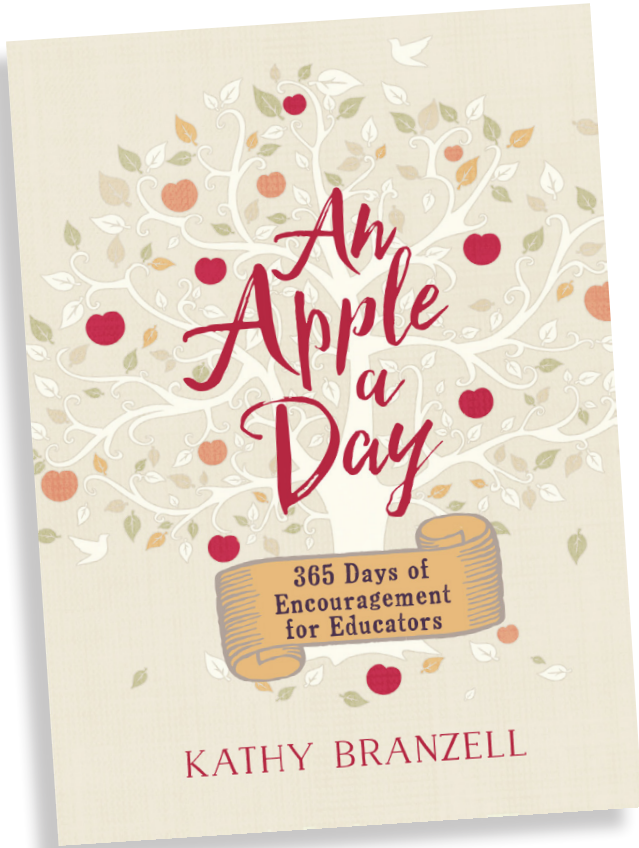

This book will:

- Provide principles for a strong daily walk
- Teach readers how to depend on the Holy Spirit
- Encourage readers to believe for and trust God's supernatural power
- Share the truth that God can use any believer to accomplish tremendous things for his kingdom
- Offer the hope of restoration, forgiveness, and courage to begin again

With an understanding that all people doubt, Dr. Cho and Dr. Goodall explain how to grow in faith and live in a hope that chooses to believe in spite of our circumstance, occupation, family, finance, or a myriad of other concerns.

Whose autograph do you want on your child's heart?

Education today focuses on college and career, seldom addressing the character of our students in meaningful ways. Here is a collection of thirty-six godly qualities we want for our kids (and for ourselves!) – one each week, to explore and embrace. Remind yourselves and your kids what they are, how the Bible views them, and how to implement them in your daily endeavors, in a devotional for the heart of any teacher and student.

- How best can we follow Christ? By emulating him in character! Inspire your children to imitate Godly qualities, focusing on one each week.
- Each day explore scripture and delve into the discussion with your youngsters and teens.
- Attentiveness and Dedication: Show a person their importance by offering undivided attention to what they say and do.
- Patience and Humility How is patience the opposite of anger? How does humility help with patience?

A must-read for the home schooling family, this series of daily studies will benefit every family in their pursuit of true Christian living.

Isolation. Loneliness. Alienation. None of these words appeal to our sense of belonging. Why? Because we crave connection. The need for community has been hardwired into our DNA.

The cause of our greatest cultural crises and the key to unlocking them is not a secret. The remedy that families, relationships, even nations need today is only five letters long. And it was revealed to us from the very beginning of human existence. This simple solution hasn't been hidden—it's been ignored.

By returning to the first revelation God gave his creation, we can find healing, hope, and health.

Since 2005, he's also served as president of Endeavor Ministries (formerly Christian Endeavor International), which has trained millions of young leaders globally since 1881. Each year, Tim travels extensively speaking and consulting on collaborative ministry with youth. His Grow21 discipleship series books have been used by over 500,000 teens worldwide.
